ROCKAWAY TO JUGGLER

WINS AQUEDUCT FEATURE EASILY
AFTER MUCH INTERFERENCE.

Rustle, Suffrage and Master Robert Set New Track Records—Hot Shot's Victorious
Debut as a Jumper.

New York, April 17.—Small fields ruled at Aqueduct today. Only five ran in the Rockaway Stakes, the day's fixture; four in the steeplechase; three in the handicap, while Suffrage and Handzarra scared out the other entries for the fifth race, leaving it a two-horse affair. The two-year-old races furnished the only good fields of the day. Juggler, which was considered by his people to have a chance for the Carter, won the Rockaway Stakes. He was second choice at 3 to 1, the big money going on Jacobite, which was making his first appearance of the season. Jacobite evidently was short, for he tired badly after being in the thick of it on the turn for home. Juggler, outran early, came fast on the outside and outgamed Slickaway.

Grapple, winner of the Metropolitan Handicap last year, was a strong favorite for the six furfong handicap and, after Workman had unseated Milber at the start, had an easy thing of it to beat Clare Russell. Right at the start Workman stumbled and Miller lost a stirrup. The next stride unseated the rider, but Workman galloped in front of his opponents all the way.

Suffrage won in a canter from Handzarra, and set a new track record for the five-eighths of a mile, in 59%.

The best looking field of two-year-olds seen out this year started in the closing race. Bridge Whist and Bellwether were the best looking, but Master Robert had shown the best in trials and was favorite. Yet a world of money was in evidence for Bridge Whist while Bellwether was also generously supported. Master Robert was many pounds the best and cantered away from his opponents at the end setting a new track record for the half mile, which he are in 47 ack.

which he ran in 47.

The Cella crowd had better luck in the opening race as Rustle had little trouble to win and set a new track record for the four and a half furlongs. Bridge Whist had shown in private to be much better than Rustle and his strong backing was due to this.

Hot Shot, which had not raced since the Belmont Stakes of 1905, made his first appearance as a steeplechaser and won in a drive from Commodore Fontaine. Hot Shot fenced well and showed great gameness. He looks like making good over country. Jockey Bullman reached here today. He will ride for J. J. Walsh for the present and expects to do 107 in warm weather.

The Ozone Stakes for two-year-olds is the principal feature of tomorrow's program, but the purses have filled well and with such good racers as Frizette, Matches Mary, Hands Around; Mary Morris, Eudora, Little Woods; W. H. Carey, Orphan Lad, Tartan: Masks and Faces, Rosario, Magazine; Anna May, Sir Toddington, Barbary Belle; Pins and Needles, Milstone and Communipaw showing in the entries, there is a promising outlook for well contested finishes in most of the races.

IMPORTED AND NATIVE-BRED SIRES.

Comparative Performances of Their Two-Year-Olds from January 1 to March 31.

By way of comment on the running of the two year-olds at Benning an eastern writer said: 'Fatherless was the leading sire of the two-year old winners for the first week of the Benning meeting. Six races were run, and the son of Isonomyphan Agnes has two in the list, Billie Hibbs and Billie Hibbs is out of Aurine and a brother to Pater, while Giles is out of Niola. Other sires represented by these early winning two-year Dinna Forget, an English stallion, whose representative is Oueen's Souvenir: Galore, represented by Dead Gone; Holstein, by Lady Isabel, and Shapfell, by Ben Cole. Holstein is the only native bred stallion in the list. He is a product of Colonel Milton Young's McGrathiana Farm, being by

Hanover-Anna Gray. Subsequently Servile, Senator Barrett, Bilfil, Black Mask, Bob Callahan Jr., Beckon, Jubilee, Otwell, Trey of Spades and Lady Powell joined the ranks of two-year-old winners at the Washington meeting and when it ended the stallions represented were Fatherless, Dinna Forget, Galore, Shapfell, Toddington, Planudes, Resolute II., Ogden, Holstein, Compute, Aldine, Plaudit and Flatlands, eight imported stallions being represented to five native bred. So the Washington meeting resulted in a distinct triumph for the imported sires. But the contrary is the case in the country at large in the racing of the three months of January, February and March. In those three months American-bred sires were represented by seventy-four winners that won 144 races and $67,281, while the imported sires had to their credit sixty-two winning two-year-olds that captured sixty-two races and $56,419. native-bred sires, the number of winning two-yearolds representing them, and the number of races and amount of money won by the latter are as Good Son of Kingston-Calico Is Injured and Destroyed in England.

Lancashire, one of the best horses to carry the colors of James R. Keene in the racing of 1902 in England, is dead. He spread his foot in a race over hurdles at Manchester, April 1, and was so badly injured that he had to be destroyed. Lancashire was by Kingston, out of Calico, by Hampton. He was bred by Mr. Keene and was foaled at Castleton Stud in Kentucky in 1901. Mr. Keene took him to England as a yearling and in 1903 started him in six stakes, in only one of which he was unplaced, and his earnings approached $15,000. In all of these races he was ridden by Lucien Lyne, the American jockey, who was then under engagement to Mr. Keene and who is now in England for his second year.

Lancashire made his first start in the Coventry Stakes and finished second to St. Amant, which won the Derby in 1904. The second time out Lancashire was third to Ladas and Santry in the New Stakes. Next he was third for the Princess Cup and then ran second to the great filly Pretty Polly in the Champagne Stakes. This was followed by his victory in the Imperial Produce Stakes and in his last start of the season he was unplaced. In December, 1903, at Newmarket, he was sent into the sales ring and passed under the hammer to Mr.

I Ruchanan for $15,000. Though he returned Mr. Buchanan more than his purchase price, Lancashire was not the success during his next two years that his new owner probably expected he would be. He was unplaced in eight of his nine races as a three-year-old, but he made the other one count by winning the London Breeders' Foal Plate of nearly $6,000 at Kempton Park. In 1905 he began with a victory in the Liverpool Spring Cup, was third in the Princess of Wale Stakes, second in the Lingfield Plate and unplaced in his other six races. His earnings for Buchanan that year footed up to $9,875, and in December at Newmarket he was sold to C. R. Hodgson for $2.400. Mr. Hodgson, however, did not keep him long. He schooled him through the winter and in April of last year sent him out for the Maiden Hurdle at Eglinton Hunt meeting and won it, netting $440. Next he was unplaced in a hurdle ace and came back to the flat to win the Wadham Selling Plate an Sandown Park, which brought him $960, and after the race J. Muddimer bought him or $1,550. His only winning race for this last named owner was the Atherston Plate, which netted $950. In December last he was sold privately to Mr. H. Hunt, who rode him in three or four hurdle races during the winter and had started him once before the race of his injury this spring.

Calico, the dam of Lancashire, was bred by Foxhall Keene in England and was sent to this country at the foot of her dam, Dimity, by Galopin, in the summer or fall of 1894. Dimity had been covered by Sheen, but died shortly after reaching Kentucky. Calico was not raced. As a three-year-old in 1897, she was mated with Domino and the following spring produced Gingham, which was also reserved for the stud without racing. Gingham is the dam of Umbrella, a three-year-old, by Ben Brush, in the stable of "Father Bill" Daly. Umbrella started forty-two times last year, won one race, was seven times second and three times third, earning $2,050. She has been once third out of six starts this year and is entered to rece again today.

After Gingham, the next foal of Calico to live was Lancashire and then came Lancashire Lass, also by Kingston in 1902. She did not win as a two-year-old, but scored once out of nine starts as a three-year-old. She was not out last year at all. Next Calico dropped Grimaldi, by Disguise. Grimaldi was second in one of his two starts last year, but has not appeared under colors this year. Calico has no two-year-old for the racing of 1907.

SEAGRAM HORSES AT TORONTO.

Toronto, Ont., April 17.—Because of the unfavorable weather lately the Woodbine track is somewhat heavy, but is gradually improving and it is expected to be in good shape by the latter part of the week, and then the horses will be getting two-minute work. A new dressing has been put on the stretch. A new galvanized iron roof has been put on the members' stand and all the woodwork has been taken out of it. New seats have been put in, so this stand is now in first-class condition.

Joseph E. Seagram's stable of twenty-seven horses in charge of trainer Littlefield arrived from Waterloo last night. It was the intention to have them here last week, but on account of the bad weather they were kept at the farm in Waterloo. The names of the local trainers, together with Jockey Joe Hogg, whose leg was broken in New Orleans about two weeks ago by being crowded into the fence during a race, is now in this city. The injured leg is in a plaster cast and it is not likely to be in condition to allow him to ride here this spring.

Lancashire, one of the best horses to carry the colors of James R. Keene in the racing of 1902 in England, is dead. He spread his foot in a race over hurdles at Manchester, April I, and was so badly a couple of others.

SUPPRESSING THE TOUTS.

New York, April 17.—The Jockey Club has launched a vigorous crusade against the touts. All professional timers were ordered away from Belmont Park Monday and they have since not been permitted to enter the grounds, likewise they have been denied admission to Aqueduct even in the afternoon,

TRAINER ROWE A BENEDICT.

New York, April 17.—James Rowe, the successful trainer of James R. Keene's stable, yesterday announced his marriage to Miss Eliza Mary Young, daughter of George R. Young, of Toledo.

HORSES ARRIVE AT LOUISVILLE.

Louisville, Ky., April 17.—Twenty-five carloads of horses arrived this afternoon from New Orleans. They came in two special trains. Redgauntlet worked a mile and an eighth this morning in 1:58§. Miss Alert worked three-quarters of a mile in 1:17.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

There are now over 200 horses at Jamaica and the number is increasing every day.

It is said that J. B. Respess is paying $3,500 for first call on the services of jockey J. Lee this year.

Montgomery, the winner of the Crescent City Derby, has arrived at Belmont Park and is in good condition.

Alderman Tim, by Senator McCarren, out of Campania, is a two-year-old of T. D. Sullivan's own breeding.

Leo Mayer and Eddie Burke, the bookmakers, were injured in an automobile smashup returning o New York from Aqueduct Monday.

Jockey Fuller is at Aqueduct, apparently fully restored to health, and he says he will try to ride again, though he has some apprehension as to his success.

Paul J. Rainey says De Mund needed the race that he got in the Carter Handicap and he predicts that he will be a mighty hard horse to beat from this time on. Furthermore, he has no doubt that the son of Goldfinch will go a mile or farther.

RAPID WATER'S SUCCESS.

HILDRETH'S HORSE MAKES IT FOUR STRAIGHT AT OAKLAND.

True Wing Scores Her Second Victory in as Many Starts This Year—Anniversary of the Earthquake.

Oakland, Cal., April 17.—Similar weather conditions, uncomfortably warm and sultry, marked this, the eve of the first anniversary of the great earthquake and fire. Everybody is talking about it and, of course, many of the superstitious are predicting things for the morrow. The big racetrack crowd however, engaged in the sport this afternoon without betraying any signs of uneasiness and the majority of those speculatively inclined profited handsomely on the last four races, which were all captured by favorites.

The outstanding feature of the day's card was the brilliant victory that the top weight and heavily backed public idol, Rapid Water, achieved in the handicap at a mile and fifty yards, fourth on the card. Sam Hildreth's light of other days has come back into his stake form of a couple of season's ago. Conceding all the way from seven pounds to thirty-two pounds to his opponents, the big Hagginbred horse led them from start to finish in the fast time of 1:43½.

One of the incidents of the day was the terrific plunge on Abbey in the first, which met an unexpected defeat. True Wing cantered away in a big field in the closing race at seven and a half furlongs and experts pronounced Ryan's mare to be the choicest bit of horse flesh in California. The Illinois bred mare displayed wonderful form and nothing in local training has any business with her from now on.

Racegoers are beginning to realize the need of an ambulance corps, so many jockeys are falling in races. There is hardly a day that one or two boys are not thrown, all due to rough riding.

Bookmaker George Lindon and his crew who operate under the name of the Tokio book are fresh arrivals from New Orleans. Lindon will book here for the remainder of the meeting.

The horse Stoessel died today from inflammation of the bowels.

Tomorrow's card is fairly promising and with such speedy horses as Rhinestone, Gine Hee, Husky; Black Sam, Captain Forsee, Achelita; Galvestonian, Otto Price, Silver Line; The Mighty, Cabin, Pickaway; Gossiper II., Confessor, George P. McNear; True Wing, Ocean Shore, and St. Francis, likely to go to the post the patrons of the track will probably have little to complain of when the sport of the day is over.

H. Forsland.

TODAY'S YOUNG DEBUTANTS.

Nine two-year-olds are carded to make their first starts at Aqueduct today and all save N'Importe were bred in Kentucky. N'Importe is by Terrifler, out of Mica and was bred by H. T. Stylit is a half-sister to the great horse King's Courier, now in the stud in England. Stylit is by Meadowthorpe, out of Stylitene; was bred by the late Colonel James E. Pepper at Meadowthorpe Stud and was sold to Fred Burlew for $500.

THE BELGIAN JOCKEY CLUB ANNUAL

Volume of 844 Pages Full of Racing Information Shows Country's Advancement.

The Belgian Jockey Club Annual for 1907, clearly printed volume of 844 pages, strongly bound in green cloth, was published April 1 at Brussels and has brought from racing men on the Continent many expressions of appreciation for the advancement displayed by the Belgian Jockey Club. Commenting upon the Annual, the Paris correspondent of London Sporting Life says: "I can remember when the Belgian Jockey Club Annual was a modest little quarto, which you could comfortably carry in your pocket, and it was the only return of racing in that country, for 'La Revue du Turf Belge' had not then been started by an enterand energy in trying to bring the racing in Belgium Chevalier Hynderick de Theulegeot has taken the lead in Belgian racing affairs he has improved them in a remarkable degree, and the present volume is an eloquent tribute to his intelligence and Chevalier Hynderick has often been called the Belgian Admiral Rous, and he has much to merit the title. I regard him and M. B. Cornand, the director of the Forest Racecourse, and M. Hechtermans, the editor of the 'Sport Belge,' as the three foremost authorities on racing law and control in Belgium, and the racegoing public in that country owe a great deal to these three

"The official Annual, issued by the Belgian Jockey Club, does not confine itself exclusively to Belgian The first section is taken up with particucountries. We have the constitution of the English Jockey Club and the National Hunt Committee, their Stewards and members; and similar information about the Societe d'Encouragement and the Steeple Chase Society of France; the Union Klub of Berlin. which regulates racing in Germany; the Austrian and Hungarian Jockey Clubs; the Societe d'En-couragement of Spain, with which, by the bye, I do not see the name of the King of Spain associated; the Jockey Club and Steeplechase Society Italy: the Societe Nerlandaise des Courses, which is practically the Dutch Jockey Club; the Racing Clubs of Scandinavia, Switzerland, and Gibraltar; the Khedivial Sporting Club of Cairo; the Jockey Club of the United States; the Australian Jockey Club of Sydney; the Victorian Jockey Club of Melbourne; and the Jockey Club of New Zealand. That is comprehensive enough in all conscience. Anyone wanting information about sport in any of the countries mentioned will find the name of the official to whom communications should be addressed, and many other details. Then, several pages are devoted to explanations of English racing phrases and words used in racing: the most important and inter esting decisions given by stewards in England, France, and Belgium during the past year are re produced; and a long table showing the 'best times at various distances recorded in France and Belgium in 1906. Much more attention is paid to the timing of races on the Continent than with you, and in France the times are very accurately registered.

"The second section of the Annual is devoted to Rules of Racing as settled by the Belgian Jockey Club and the Societe de Sport de Belgique. The rules of the Benefit Fund for trainers, jockeys, and stable lads are also given.

"The president of the Belgian Jockey Club for the current year is M. Gustav du Roy de Blicquy, and the vice-president is M. F. Coppee; the secretary is the Chevalier Hynderick de Theulegeot; the treasurer M. Georges T. Serstevens, while other members of the committee are M. Edmond Drugman, Baron Ad. della Faille d'Huysse, Baron Grenier. Baron Albert Van Loo, and Comte E. Visart de Bocarme. The Jockey Club is very exclusive, and the only other members are the Comte de Ribaucourt, General Baron Lunden, M. Georges Parmen-tier, M. P. Van Derton, M. Van den Hecke le Lembeke, M. E. Van Grootven, Baron Oscar Van Loo, Vicomte de Niculant et de Pottelsberghe, M. F. Guyot, M. Julian Lorthiois, M. G. Visart de Bocarme, M. E. Ribaucourt, M. Van der Kelen, M. G. de Denterghem, Comte Edouard d'Assche, M. C. Lienart, and M. F. du Roy de Blicquy. The three stewards whose duties are specially connected with the Belgian Stud Book are M. F. Coppee, M. E. Drugman, and Baron della Faille, three of the leading breeders

in the country. The Annuaire also gives the composition of the various provincial rac

Ostend, Antwerp, Forest, Ghent, and Deynze.
"The colors of the principal Belgian owners are given; these are about 150 in number, of whom 144 won races last year; 149 race meetings were held in 1906, and 845 races were run; 717 horses took part in these races, 347 being Belgian-bred, and 370 were imported horses, principally from England. This shows what a good market Belgium is for English thoroughbred stock, for, in addition to these 370, over 500 other racehorses were imported from England to Belgium to run at the minor meetings round Brussels, and many brood mares were also bought. I notice that Belgian-bred horses win the majority of races, but this is accounted for by the fact that 60 per cent, of the prize-money has to be given for races confined to native horses. The total amount distributed in stakes in Belgium last year was £88,442. The book gives a full return of the racing, completely indexed, and there are many interesting facts about the breeders and the stallions
